MEDICINAL.

Love is sometimes a hard taskmaster. He drives women to tasks beyond their strength and lays heavy burdens on their shoulders. Love of husband, love of family, forces many a woman day by day to labor for the home when aching back and throbbing head make her utterly unfit for household duties. Weak, nervous women who suffer from headache, backache, bearing-down pains and other consequences of womanly disease, can be completely cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, drives weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"About two years ago I was taken sick and it seemed as if I had no nerves at all," writes Mrs. P. Woodbeck, of Delray, Mich. "Could not work an hour in the day without being tired out. I doctored first with one physician, then with another, but did not receive any benefit. One would say one thing and the next something else. I had almost given up when I thought your medicine might help me, so I wrote to you asking what to do. You advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I did so and could see a difference right away. I only took four bottles in all and felt better than I had in a long time. Can work all day now and not feel tired as I would in an hour before taking your treatment. I think it is the only medicine."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure dizziness and sick headache.

A FINAL SETTLEMENT.

Second Auditor John G. Dew has received from the printer for distribution his annual report for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1903, and it is a most interesting document. Judge Dew in this paper makes the official announcement that the accounts between Virginia and the United States Government upon a basis which left a balance due the former of $5.50, have been settled.

The matter involved $594,000 of Virginia bonds, which together with interest, amounted to nearly $2,000,000, which amount was claimed by the United States Government as a debt vs. the State. In regard to this settlement, Judge Dew says:

"It had long been contended by the United States government officials that these bonds, with accrued interest, aggregated an amount greatly in excess of that due on account of the advances made by Virginia, and on more than one occasion has the difference thus claimed been demanded of the State, and for years it has been standing in a somewhat menacing attitude towards her treasury. One of the more recent of these demands was made upon the State in 1894, when the Treasurer of the United States sent a special agent to Richmond to demand of the Treasurer of the Commonwealth the payment of $540,000 of State bonds held by the United States."

"Regardless of the fact that the general government department had been charging Virginia with the large amount claimed as due by her, she, in the meantime, had been crediting her securities account with her bonds involved in this case, and held by the United States government, feeling assured the while that if an equitable adjustment of the complicated account could ever be reached, the fact would be established that she owed the United States nothing. The result has been attained with an ascertained balance, though small, of five dollars and fifty cents due Virginia."

"This balance was paid promptly by the United States; the bonds of the State returned and cancelled, and the whole matter closed finally and most satisfactorily to Virginia."

Judge Dew makes a general statement concerning the conditions of the debt.

VIRGINIA CORN EXHIBIT AT ST. LOUIS.—As a further incentive to stimulate Virginia corn growers to make a creditable showing at the St. Louis exposition, the Virginia commission have decided to offer $120 in premiums as follows: $50 for the best exhibit of corn from any county, to consist of ten or more varieties of 100 ears each; $50 for the next best exhibit from any county, of ten or more varieties, and $20 for the third best exhibit from any county, of ten or more varieties, and $20, as before offered, for the best one hundred ears sent in by any grower. All corn competing will be exhibited under the competitor's name, whether a prize winner or not, and all exhibits sent in must be sent with the understanding that they are to become the property of the commission for this purpose. Competent judges will be chosen to make the awards in this competition, and notice of the winners will be published in the State papers. The commission will pay freight charges on all shipments, which should be packed in substantial boxes or barrels and shipped by freight to Geo. E. Murrell, Superintendent No. 14 Governor street, Richmond, Va.

A FATAL DEBAUCH.—Edward Long, single, aged thirty-four years, a canal boatman, who made his home with his mother and sisters at Williamsport, Md., was found dead by John Mallotte yesterday, locked up in the Western Maryland Railroad scales house at Williamsport with a bottle of whisky. His face and body were covered with bruises. A jury of inquest was summoned yesterday afternoon, and after a large number of witnesses had testified, a verdict was found to the effect that Long had died of alcoholism, the liquor being administered by parties unknown to the jury. Long, who is a democrat, was locked in the building, it is alleged, by several political workers with a bottle of cheap whisky within easy reach to prevent him from voting. When Mallotte hunted him up he found him dead. The bruises on his head and body led to the belief that Long had been murdered, but this theory was dismissed when it was learned that numbers of people saw him falling on the street Monday night under the influence of liquor.

LYNCHING FOLLOWS RACE RIOT.—Henry Johnson, a negro, was taken from jail at Lakeville, Ark., at noon yesterday by a mob and hanged in the center of town. The act followed a fight between the whites and blacks early in the day, in which Frank Anderson was killed and R. Vinson, a lawyer, from Little Rock, and several others were wounded. During the row, it is claimed, Ed. Coleman, a negro, began shooting, which started a fusillade. When it was over the dead and wounded were counted. Coleman fled, with a posse in pursuit. Johnson was locked up. Excitement ran high and a mass-meeting of citizens was held, at which observation of law was urged, but a large number of the more excitable rushed to the jail, battered down the doors, secured Johnson and hanged him.

A Runaway Bicycle.—Terminated with an ugly cut on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill. It developed a stubborn ulcer unyielding to doctors and remedies for four years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured. It's just as good for Burns, Scalds, Skin Eruptions and Piles, 25c, at E. S. Leander & Sons Drug Store.
